MUSIC NOTES

Dear Church Family,
Thank you for your response to Captain Scotty Smiley this past Sunday. He commented numerous times about how much he appreciated the warmth and friendliness of our church. I know many of you would love to have gotten a copy of his book, but they sold out rather quickly. You may purchase a signed copy at Captain Smiley's web site: www.hopeunseen.com. Also, if you would like to make a contribution to his foundation, you may write a check to Hope Unseen and drop it by the office. I will make sure it gets into the right hands promptly. I know you will be blessed and you will certainly be a blessing to the Smileys.

Thanks again for your generous support!
Chris Wommack

OUR MISSION STATEMENT

We are called as Christ's disciples to share His love with the people of McLennan County and beyond in such a way that they have the greatest opportunity to know Christ and to become fully-developing followers of Christ.

Wow! What a Day!: This past Sunday was one of those special days that grant us a taste of God's greatness and goodness. The early service held the largest attendance I remember. The second service was literally filled to overflowing with many of our young people sitting on the floor. Sunday School attendance was over 2,000, and that is only part of the story. The worship and fellowship were incredible. Many new faces were there, and most came because of your invitation. I hope none of us takes these precious days for granted. They are a gift from God.

Discipleship Launch: With twenty-five classes to choose from, our folks have the opportunity to pursue Christian maturity. If you have not already signed up for one of our classes, I urge you to do so and to get started this week. You will be greatly blessed. Thanks to Chris Sammons for doing such a great job enlisting competent leaders and wonderful courses for our spiritual journey.

Construction Progress: Amazingly, the weather has only marginally slowed down the construction of our Children's Ministry Building, and the creativity of our project manager has recaptured most of that. The building is being staged different from normal, making it possible for more of the trades to get started sooner. Pray we will have access to our new building by August 1st so we can take full advantage of the new Sunday School year.

Holy Land Trip: Interest continues to grow in our Oct 29-Nov. 10th trip to Israel. There are currently over thirty folks giving serious consideration to joining us. I would love for you to experience this life changing journey with us.

THANK YOU!

Thank you, FBC Woodway, for again supporting Christian Women's Job Corps! The contributions of supplies we received under our Christmas tree allow us to work with more women as they are making lifestyle changes to not only better themselves but their families and future generations also.

A group of our youth who were staying in the Rork home for Chi Alpha came to the CWJC Center that Saturday afternoon and worked hard for two hours - cleaning, painting, and moving furniture. They did a great job with great attitudes!

We appreciate FBC Woodway supporting local missions.
